BOBBY LONG IS NAMED TO THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MINORITY GOVERNMENT CONTRACTOR'S (NAMGC) BOARD OF ADVISORS

Bobby Long has been elected to the Board of Advisors of the National Association of Minority of Government Contractors (NAMGC). His term on the Advisory Board of the association also known as NAMGC began on February 19, 2009.

“Bobby is a strong CEO and marketer and we look forward to benefiting from his insights and experience as a member of NAMGC’s board,” said Alpha Roberts, NAMGC’s President and CEO. “Bobby will add a new dimension to our already lively board discussions.”

“I believe the NAMGC is in a position to become a much larger and more prominent voice in the minority contracting industry on such items as diversification, contracting opportunities and certifications,” Bobby Long noted. “I look forward to working with Alpha and fellow Board Members to move these issues forward.”

”NAMGC is an organization dedicated to offering federal, state and local government contracting professionals with all levels of experience a wide range of professional development and network opportunities. NAMGC is an organization dedicated to enhancing diversification of the workplace. NAMGC provides opportunities for the Federal, State and Local Government sector to find key resources in order to engage in contracting opportunities. NAMGC serves as an outreach mechanism to reach individuals with diverse backgrounds, ample experience and exceptional skills. For more information about NAMGC, please visit www.namgc.org.
